

If the commission allows the banking consortium to abrogate the strength of Indiana's telephone privacy law, not only will there be a plethora of unnecessary and unwanted calls, but more importantly it will send a CLEAR message to the Spammers and all manner of telemarketers that they can abrogate the law by using the FCC as a get around process. Please do not allow this to occur. It WILL decrease the commissions authority and certainly in respect.

In Health & In Service,
Dr. Cadwell